

Spreading joy...

2020 has been a testing year for many, but Christmas isn't cancelled and your local Daisy hopes to bring a little Christmas cheer and spread joy to you and your loved ones during the festive season, no matter the weather!

If there's one thing we can help with this Christmas, it's bringing you closer to your loved ones at a time when we all need it the most. Or if you need a friend, we can be that too! Whether it's driving by the local Christmas light show, attending a Christmas get together with your loved ones, or getting your Christmas shopping done, we're here to not only make that happen, but make it safe and easy for you too. We can be that trusted friend you need, help you keep your independence without fear, and enjoy the festivities this year!

So, go on, get your friends on the phone and get planning your next outing with your trusted Daisy. Or call us and we can help you plan something special in your area, we know the local hot spots. Plus, it is times like these that help us to see how truly lucky we are to call New Zealand home.

"Christmas will always be, as long as we stand heart to heart and hand in hand."

– Dr. Suess

Christmas Gingerbread biscuits

350g plain flour
1 teaspoon bicarb soda
2 teaspoons ground ginger
100g butter
150g brown sugar
4 tablespoons golden syrup
1 egg
currants, choc chips and/or nuts to decorate

Preheat oven to 190 degrees C. Sift together the flour, ginger and bicarb soda. Chop the butter and rub into the flour mixture until it resembles fine breadcrumbs. Stir in the sugar.

Beat together the syrup and the egg and stir into flour mixture. Knead with floured hands to form a smooth dough.

Roll out on a floured surface till it's about 0.5 cm thick. Using a gingerbread man cutter, cut shapes until all of the dough has been used, rerolling the trimmings. Lay these on lined baking trays.

Decorate with currants, choc chips, nuts or however for the eyes and buttons.

Bake at 190 degrees C for 15 mins, until golden brown. Cool on a wire rack.
